9/14/60
I am sorry that I took so long in getting around to putting a few phrases in to the vest annual that has ever come out of the doors of LHS! I'll always remember the year that we have had, most in the year 1959-60. All of the times that Paul & I double-dated - especially in the last month of this summer. Please try to keep in touch with me. I am away this winter and tell me of the fun you are having being a senior. Best of luck to you in every thing that you
try to do.

Gloucester High School

Gloucester, Virginia

Dedication

For your warm and winning personality, which has gained you a host of loyal friends; for your fathomless patience and good will, which have rewarded you with our deepest respect; and for your untiring efforts, which have aroused in us the spark of school spirit; we, the Senior Class of Gloucester High School, proudly dedicate this book to you,

JAMES A. COLEY, JR.

Jackie,

The first time I ever saw you I was struck by your beautiful eyes, your laughing eyes. You now are even more dear to me because of your attachment to someone else that is dear to me, and every day I am reminded of my fortune, when I gaze on you.

Tim Jones

Jackie,
the "Best" of ways to to a very nice girl. I been nice knowing you this year. I remember the good times we've had in Phys. Ed and just lunch Block.
a friend and 1/2

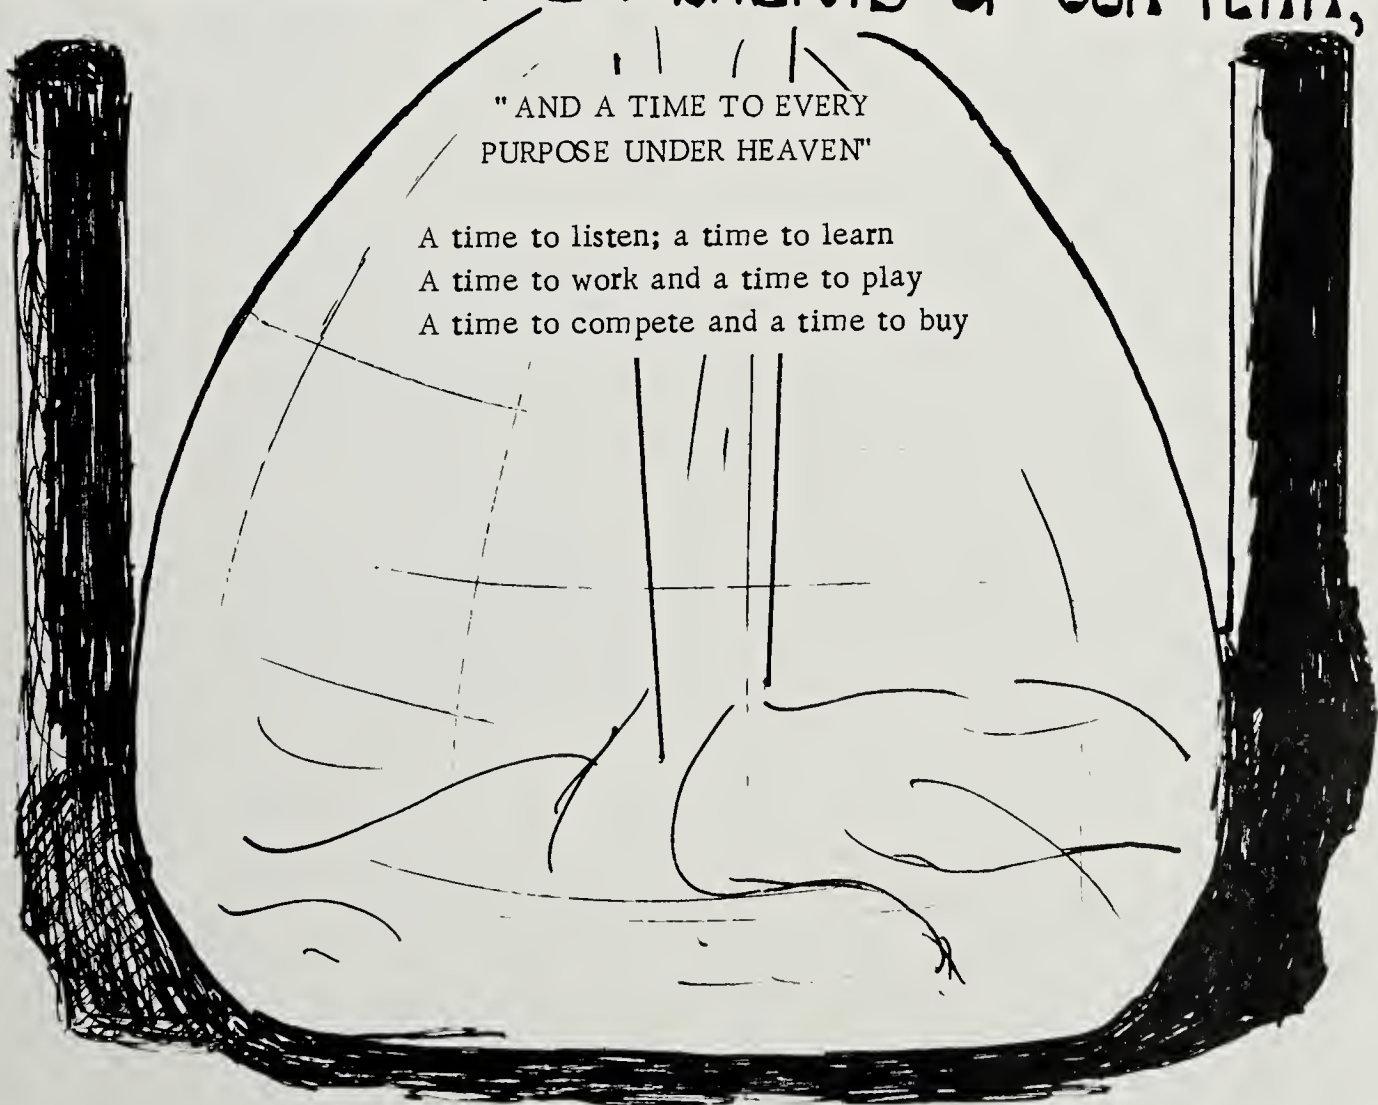

"To every thing there is a season, and a time to every purpose under the heaven: A time to be born, and a time to die; a time to plant, and a time to pluck up that which is planted; A time to kill, and a time to heal; a time to break down, and a time to build up; A time to weep, and a time to laugh; a time to mourn, and a time to dance; A time to cast away stones, and a time to gather stones together; a time to embrace, and a time to refrain from embracing; A time to get, and a time to lose; a time to keep, and a time to cast away; A time to rend, and a time to sew; a time to keep silence, and a time to speak; A time to love, and a time to hate; a time of war, and a time of peace.

ECCLESIASTES 3:1-8

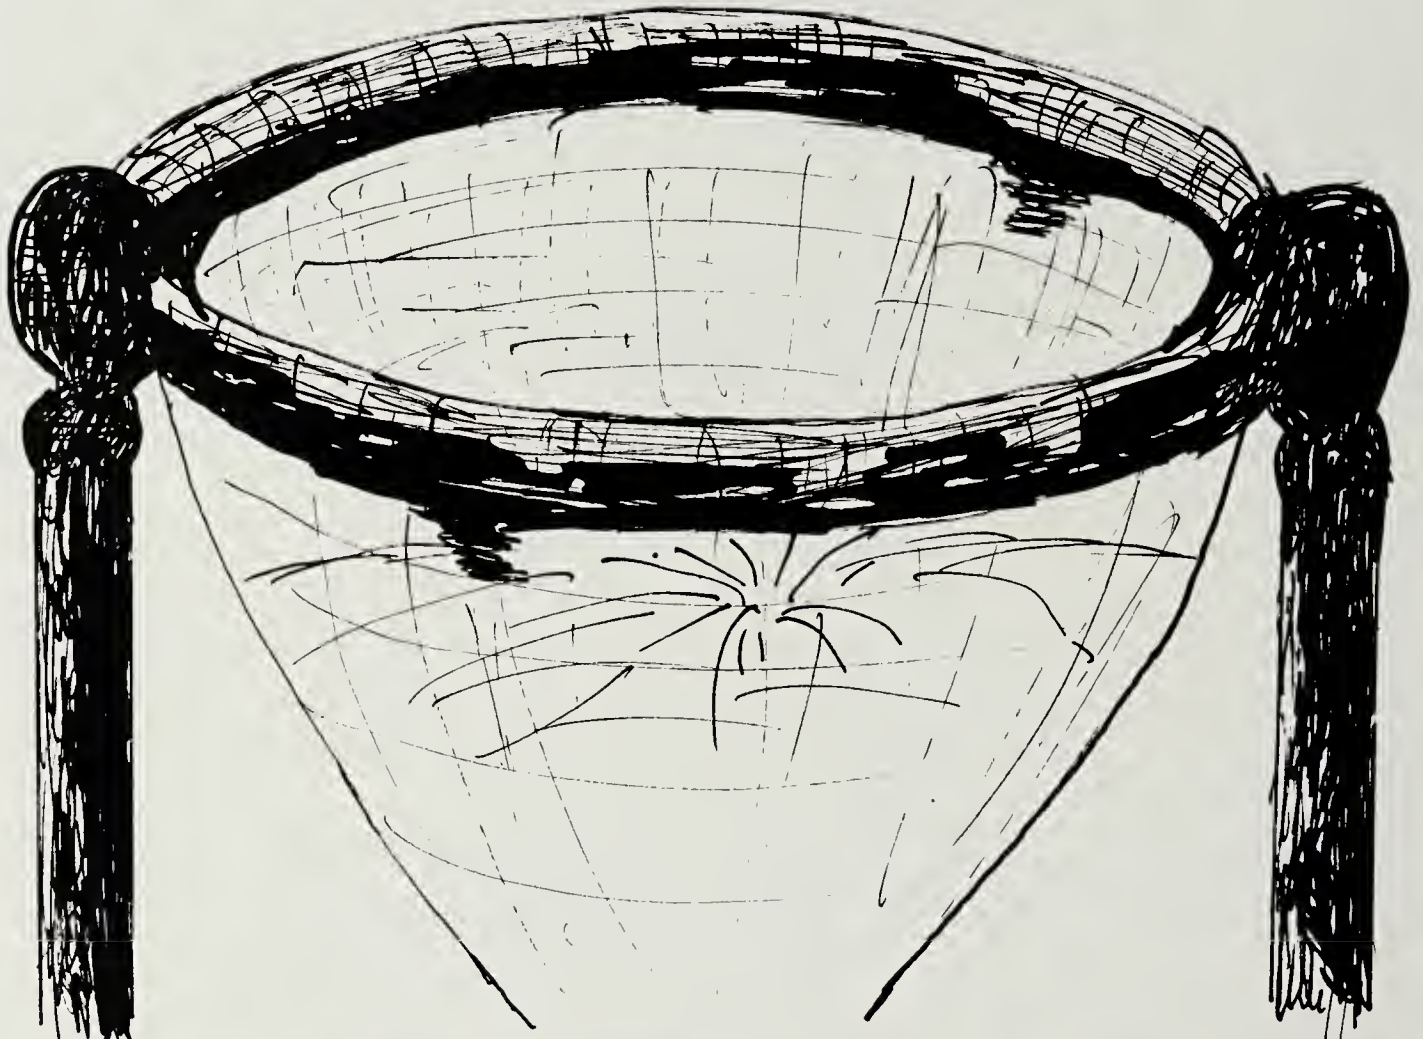

A GRAIN OF SAND FALLS

AND WE CAPTURE THE MOMENTS OF OUR YEAR, 1960

"AND A TIME TO EVERY PURPOSE UNDER HEAVEN"

A time to listen; a time to learn A time to work and a time to play A time to compete and a time to buy

A TIME TO LISTEN

We took time to listen; you took time to advise. Our problems were yours, our triumphs were shared, our alibis and excuses were listened to and carefully handled. Thus, our goals were achieved, the challenges met. We took time to listen.

A TIME TO LEARN

"There was a time to learn! We grew scholastically, socially, physically, mentally, and spiritually, far more than we realized at the time. The routine classes sometimes seemed boring; but what an important part of our lives. Yes, the sand is falling, time is passing, but there's time for everything worthwhile in our lives.

A TIME TO PLAY

Also there were times we could enjoy our high school years. The feeling we had as we entered G. H. S. The breathless anticipation of the Junior Prom, the hurry and fun of decorating, and the finished product of a prom to be forever remembered. All of our experiences, good and bad, have been fun as we recall them.

A TIME TO COMPETE

We had time to compete! Freezing in a cold November wind during football season was not hard to endure as we watched our Dukes make the touchdowns that spelled victory! Then later we enjoyed our Dukettes and Dukes in basketball season as we occupied the bleachers in the gym. We didn't always win; nevertheless, we felt good, because we did our best!

Jackie,
I've regretted all year not having off classes with you this year.
Do you remember that wild dance class in the 4th grade? That was something. The only time I've seen you this year is walking around the hall as I guess next year will have to be different. But you will be

I can't believe it can you? Just this weekend we "celebrate" our year, now isn't that something? It sure
has been nice knowing you these last few years and I hope will be seeing each other for a long time to come.
I don't enjoy sitting across from you in English class. Now I won't! I'm looking forward to being in some of your classes
next year because we can have a wild time
when we are together.
I hope you will be happy to see me at the homecoming dance.

I'd be seeing you around. (Love ya!)
